

Caleb Klauder
“DANGEROUS MEs and POISONOUS YOUs”
Available in stores now!

On his new record, DANGEROUS MEs and POISONOUS YOUs, Caleb Klauder draws on his diverse musical background to create a sound that is at once varied and classic. Caleb himself sings and plays guitar in a style reminiscent of early Nashville. With pedal steel, acoustic guitar, upright bass and drums, DANGEROUS MEs and POISONOUS YOUs captures a sense of classic yet fresh Honky Tonk, with hints of Old-Time, Cajun, Western Swing throughout.

Seven of the twelve songs are original, and the others are covers of artists such as Ray Price, Kitty Wells and Dolly Parton. Classics and new material flow together naturally on this album. It is a fine showcase of Caleb's diverse knowledge of different musical genres, his fine songwriting, and his ability to render old favorites in a way that is simultaneously faithful to the originals and interestingly new.

Caleb Klauder sings and plays guitar and mandolin on his second full length record, and acts as producer for the first time. Ned Folkerth plays drums; Paul Brainard plays dobro, six string electric and steel guitar; Betse Ellis of the Wilders plays fiddle and sings; Stephen "Sammy" Lind of the Foghorn Stringband plays fiddle and guitar and sings; Jesse Emerson of Amelia plays the bass fiddle; Lewi Longmire and Ralph Huntley of Klezmocracy share the piano seat, and Kevin Sandri of Foghorn plays bass fiddle on "New Shoes". All tracks were recorded live in the studio between March 2005 and November 2006.

Caleb Klauder recorded his debut solo album SINGS OUT in 2000. SINGS OUT was produced by the young and energetic producer/musician Luther Russell. This critically acclaimed record is a diverse collection of rock, country, folk and bluegrass that showcases Caleb's singing and songwriting in a more pared-down and focused musical setting.

Caleb currently plays mandolin and sings with the Foghorn Stringband, a hard-driving traditional American stringband. Foghorn has toured extensively throughout the United States and has traveled to the United Kingdom, Ireland, Canada, Denmark and Malaysia. The group has recorded four albums, one for Nettwerk Records, and has also recorded and performed with Dirk Powell as the Dirk Powell band.

After two years of songwriting, a heavy performance schedule, and many recording sessions, Caleb Klauder is proud to present DANGEROUS MEs and POISONOUS YOUs. This creative new album and lively collection of songs will please all of Caleb's fans.
